

DPS Bokaro- No. 1 School in Jharkhand

Education World India School Rankings 2017

The hub of holistic development, a centre of educational excellence – Delhi Public School, Bokaro Steel City - the best school in Jharkhand. In a nationwide survey conducted by Education World- one of the leading educational magazines of India, DPS Bokaro was chosen as the No. 1 Co- Ed Day School in Jharkhand& continues to be amongst the top C.B.S.E schools of the country across 14 parameters of educational excellence as reported by Education World India Schools Rankings – September, 2017. The parameters include the Teaching Learning standards, Faculty Competence, Teachers’ welfare and development, infrastructure provision, community service, Academic Reputation, Leadership & Management Quality, Co – Curricular Activities, Sports Education and many more.

Felicitated amidst the grand celebrations at The Leela Ambience in Gurgaon on September 23, 2017, the Director & Principal of DPS Bokaro, Dr. Hemlata S. Mohan defined this grand achievement as an exalting moment for the entire DPS Bokaro family. She said, “In the pursuit of education, this achievement becomes another milestone reflecting the holistic excellence and the cultural vibrancy that are hallmarks of our school”.

This achievement has been largely possible by the support extended from the School Managing Committee. DPS, Bokaro family expresses its gratitude to our promising young achievers, the teachers providing selfless service and the ever-supportive parents.

